

Reporting Your Household When You Apply or Renew for SNAP

Life changes—like someone moving in or out—may increase your benefits. Let us know what's new!

Applying together

When you apply for SNAP benefits, make sure to include everyone in your household on your application.

Your “household” means the people you live with and the people you shop and cook most of your meals with. This may include:

Spouses, children, and other relatives; and

Roommates or other people who live with you

Reporting changes is important!

We can help make sure you get the right amount of food benefits for your current situation. Reporting changes could help you get more benefits. Below are some examples:

Examples:

Having a baby

Someone moving in or out of your living space
