

Notice of Disqualification for Non-Cooperation with Child Support Enforcement

Program	Branch:	Case number:	Worker
Case name:			FILE
Person who caused disqualification:
Reason for disqualification:
Date of notice:	Oregon Administrative Rule: 461-120-0310; 461-120-0340; and 461-120-0350.

Your cash benefits will be closed reduced. This change is effective: _____.

- (1) For the first month, there will be a 25 percent cut in your cash benefits. This cut becomes 50 percent (see item 2 below) if the above person does not cooperate before the second month.
- (2) For the second month, there will be a 50 percent cut in your cash benefits. This cut becomes 75 percent (see item 3 below) if the above person does not cooperate before the third month.
- (3) For the third month, there will be a 75 percent cut in your cash benefits. There will be no cash benefits (see item 4 below) if the above person does not cooperate before the fourth month.
- (4) For the fourth month, there will be no cash benefits for your whole family. The Department of Human Services (DHS) can reopen your cash benefits if the above person cooperates before the fourth month ends. After the fourth month, you must reapply if you want to get cash benefits.

If the above person cooperates, DHS will increase your cash benefits.

- We denied your request for cash benefits for your family. To get cash benefits, the above person must help the Division of Child Support (DCS). DCS needs help to find and get support from the absent parent.

If the above person cooperates, DHS will open your cash benefits.

If you want a hearing:

You cannot have a hearing on the automatic cut changes explained above.

- See parts 1 and 2 on the back of this notice if you are already getting these benefits.
- See part 1 on the back of this notice if you are applying for these benefits now.

Your Hearing Rights

What you can do when you do not agree with this decision:

- You have the right to challenge this decision by requesting a hearing. Hearings are held by the Office of Administrative Hearings, which is independent from the Department of Human Services (DHS) or Oregon Health Authority (OHA). DHS or OHA may make decisions affecting your medical benefits. If you want a hearing, you must request it on time.
- You can also talk with a manager. You can call a local office phone number listed at <http://www.oregon.gov/dhs/localoffices/localoffices.pdf>. Your deadline date to request a hearing (part 1 below) does not change even if you are in contact with a manager or are trying to reach one. If you still need further assistance, you may contact the Governor's Advocacy Office at 1-800-442-5238.

Part 1 — Ask for a hearing.

What must I do to get a hearing? For food benefits and medical eligibility, you can ask for a hearing on form MSC 0443, by phone, in writing, or by asking a DHS employee in person. For other benefits, you must fill out an Administrative Hearing Request form (MSC 0443) and return it to a DHS or OHA office. You can get this form at a DHS or OHA office or on the web at <https://apps.state.or.us/Forms/Served/me0443.pdf>. Your local office can help you with a hearing request. You may request a hearing at any time if you disagree with the current amount of your food benefits. You have 90 days to request a hearing for food benefits, medical eligibility, and for TANF reductions for not cooperating with your case plan. In other situations, DHS must receive your request within 45 days from the date on the notice.

Note to military personnel: Active duty service members have a right to stay (delay) these proceedings under the federal Servicemembers Civil Relief Act (SCRA). For more information, you may contact the Oregon State Bar (1-800-452-8260), the Oregon Military Department (1-800-452-7500) or the nearest legal assistance office, legalassistance.law.af.mil.

Who can help with my hearing? For food benefits and for medical programs, anyone may represent you. In all other programs, you must represent yourself or have a lawyer or a legal assistant (supervised by a Legal Aid attorney) represent you. You may call the Public Benefits Hotline (a program of Legal Aid Services of Oregon and the Oregon Law Center) at 1-800-520-5292 for advice and possible representation.

What are my other hearing rights? At the hearing, you can tell why you do not agree with the decision. You can have people testify for you. The laws about your hearing rights and the hearing process are at OAR 137-003-0501 to 0700, 410-120-1860, 410-141-0264, 461-025-0300 to 0375, ORS 183.411 to 183.470 and ORS 411.095.

What happens if there is no hearing? If you do not ask for a hearing on time, or if you withdraw the hearing request or miss your hearing, you may lose your right to a hearing. This notice will be the final DHS or OHA decision (called a "final order by default"). You will not get a separate final order by default. The case file, along with any materials you submitted in this matter, is the record. The record is used to support the DHS decision upon default. You may appeal the final order by default by filing a petition in the Oregon Court of Appeals (ORS 183.482). If you do not ask for a hearing, this appeal must be filed within 60 days of the date this notice becomes a final order, by default. If you withdraw a hearing request or miss your hearing, the appeal deadline is set out in the dismissal order.

Part 2 — How can I keep getting benefits until my hearing?

- You can ask for your benefits to stay the same until the hearing decision ("continuing benefits"). For food and medical benefits, use form MSC 0443, phone, write or ask a DHS employee in person. In other programs, you must ask on the Administrative Hearing Request form (MSC 0443).
- You must ask your branch for continuing benefits by either the "effective date" on the notice, 10 days after the date of the notice, or (for medical only) 10 days after receipt of the notice. You must ask by whichever date is later.
- If you keep getting benefits but lose the hearing, you must pay back the benefits you should not have received.
- If you don't keep getting benefits and win the hearing, DHS or OHA will give you the benefits you should have received.

Part 3 — Can I have an expedited hearing?

You may have the right to an "expedited hearing" for any of the following types of benefits or situations:

- Expedited or emergency food benefits
- JOBS and Pre-TANF payments
- Temporary Assistance for Domestic Violence Survivors (TA-DVS) eligibility and payments
- In a medical case, you have an immediate need for health services and standard timeline for the appeal process could jeopardize your life or health or ability to attain, maintain, or regain maximum function
- DHS or OHA denied your request to keep getting benefits until your hearing.

DHS and OHA do not discriminate against anyone. This means that DHS|OHA will help all who qualify and will not treat anyone differently because of age, race, color, national origin, gender, religion, political beliefs, disability or sexual orientation. You may file a complaint if you believe DHS or OHA treated you differently for any of these reasons.
