

Use this space only if everyone is from the same household.

Your risk for COVID-19 increases when you are in an enclosed space with others who aren't in your household.