

Oregon Health Care Interpreter Program Requirements

Oregon’s Health Care Interpreter Program includes two levels of credentialing (qualification and certification). A qualified or certified health care interpreter must meet all of the requirements listed below and provide all of the supporting documentation. See OHA 2002 for renewal requirements. See Oregon Qualification and Certification for Sign Language Interpreters for qualification and certification requirements. For Languages of Lesser Diffusion (LLD) see Speakers of Languages of Lesser Diffusion and English Language or Speakers of Languages of Lesser Diffusion and Non-English Language \(LLD\) requirements. Please see below for more details about what to include in your application.

Qualification	*Certification (optional)
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Must be at least 18 years of age. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <input type="checkbox"/> Copy of a valid driver’s license, passport or other valid government issued identification. • Education: Must have high school diploma (or GED equivalent) or higher. • Must not be on the Medicaid Exclusion List: http://exclusions.oig.hhs.gov/. • Must have at least 60 hours of formal health care interpreter training. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <input type="checkbox"/> Proof of successful completion of 60-hours OHA-approved HCI training program or equivalent. • Must have language proficiency in English and the target language (see next page for more information on English language proficiency and for information about languages of lesser diffusion). <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <input type="checkbox"/> Proof of meeting the minimum required language proficiency by an approved testing center <input type="checkbox"/> OR, demonstration of having met equivalent language proficiency requirements (see next page) <input type="checkbox"/> OR, demonstration of having met Sign language proficiency through RID or other approved proficiency exam (see next page). 	All requirements from the ‘Qualification’ column (left) AND: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <input type="checkbox"/> Proof of passing a certification test from one of the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • National Board of Certification for Medical Interpreters (NBCMI) • Certification Commission for Healthcare Interpreters • National Center for State Courts Court Interpreter Oral Examination • Oregon Court Interpreter Certification • Federal Court Interpreter Certification exams • Registry of Interpreters for the Deaf (RID)
Valid for four years	Valid for four years
*Email completed application and all documents to: HCI.Program@odhsoha.oregon.gov Or fax: 971-673-1128 *Emailed applications are encouraged	Or mail to: Health Care Interpreter Program Office of Equity & Inclusion 421 SW Oak St., Suite 750 Portland, OR 97204

Oregon Health Care Interpreter Program Requirements

Meeting the language proficiency requirements for HCI qualification and certification:

Target language and English proficiency

Relay and languages of lesser diffusion:

See this page for alternate proof of language proficiency relay interpretation or languages of lesser diffusion.

Approved Language Proficiency Tests:

Oral proficiency in both English and the non-English language (L2) may be demonstrated by passing any of the exams listed below (not expired):

- Language Line University – Level 2 or above (Interagency Language Roundtable (ILR) equivalent)
- Language Testing International – testing is based on American Council of the Teaching of Foreign Languages (ACTFL) assessment. Advanced mid-level or above. Both the optional phone interpreter (OPI – telephonic) and OPIc (computer recording) are acceptable

Oral proficiency in both English and the non-English language (L2) may be demonstrated by passing any of the exams listed above (not expired) plus:

- National Center for State Courts Court Interpreter Oral Examination

English Language Proficiency:

One of the following may demonstrate oral proficiency in English (for languages of lesser diffusion see this page):

- Bachelor, masters, doctorate or any other degree from any U.S. institution of higher education
- Graduation from any high school, or completion of a GED, in an English language speaking country where English is the primary language of instruction
- Graduation from a higher education institution abroad where English is the primary language of instruction.
- One of the following tests (subject to change). Test results must be no more than four years old to be considered valid.
 - » Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL): 570+ on paper; 230+ on computer version; 90 on iBT
 - » Certificate in Advanced English (CAE), Level 4: B
 - » Certificate of Proficiency in English (CPE), Level 5: B
 - » International English Language Testing System (IELTS): 7.0+
 - » Interagency Language Roundtable (ILR): 2+
 - » Common European Framework (CEFR): B2
 - » Oral Proficiency Interview at the advanced mid-level on the ACTFL scale

Target Oral Language Proficiency:

One of the following may demonstrate oral proficiency in the non-English language:

- Bachelor, masters, doctorate or any other degree from an institution of higher education where instruction is primarily in the non-English language and the person submitting proof is a native speaker of the non-English language.
- Graduation from high school in a country where instruction is primarily in the non-English language and the person submitting proof is a native speaker of the non-English language.
- One of the following tests (subject to change). Test results must be no more than four years old to be considered valid:
 - » Interagency Language Round Table (ILR): 2+ from federal government testing agencies
 - » Common European Framework (CEFR): B2
 - » Oral Proficiency Interview at the advanced mid-level on the ACTFL scale

Sign Language Proficiency:

Signed language interpreters may apply to be on the central registry without having a Registry of Interpreters for the Deaf (RID) certification by proving proficiency through a proficiency exam approved by the Authority such as the American Sign Language Proficiency Interview (ASLPI) or the Sign Language Proficiency Interview (SLPI; ASL) with a minimum proficiency level of 4 or advanced.